The composite Unity trademark (service mark) has been registered under the national procedure with the Swiss Federal Institute of Intellectual Property for the 36 and 37 classes of Goods and Services according to the International (Nice) Classification of Goods and Services for the Purposes of the Registration of Marks):

The extract from the Swiss Federal Institute of Intellectual Property register of the Unity trademark registration is available online at www.swissreg.ch, under the registration number 765455.

Christopher Millen, CEO of Unity Capital said, "Registration of our brand has been an essential administrative requirement given our planned trajectory. As our name suggests, our corporate DNA is about maintaining and building upon the existing sense of unity between key stakeholders, with our logo designed to provide a nod to ESG principles and our commitment to green solutions".
